

Name _____

Date _____

Imagine you and your family had to either leave your home for a while, or had to stay home for a while. What things would you want with you?

It is important to have extra supplies on hand before you need them in case you can't get them in an emergency. You should have supplies that you keep in a bag to take with you. You should also have other supplies for staying in your home. Read below to find out what you would need.

Are You Ready to Go?

Unscramble the bold words below to learn about some of the things you should have in your Ready-to-Go kit.

- Don't get thirsty! Carry one gallon of rawte in your backpack.

- Make sure you have something to eat. Take canned or dried oofd that doesn't need to be refrigerated.

- Make sure you have a small srift iad kit with you.

- Keep a hilgtslahf with extra batteries in case the electricity doesn't work.

- A battery-powered oraid lets you know what is happening where you are.

- Games or a boko keep you busy if you have to wait to get back into your home.

- Pack some extra slocthe that are good for the weather where you will be staying.

- Make sure your bag has an identification tag with your home sredads and telephone number on it, in case you need to tell a trusted grownup your contact information.

- Put in an extra tlankbe in case you get cold!

- Don't forget any demenici that you take every day!

Are You Ready to Stay?

Here are some extra items you should have in your Ready-to-Stay kit. Complete each sentence with a word from the word list on the right.

- Help your family put everything in one place, like in a plastic storage container or a special _____.
- You will need more water if you are staying at home than if you are going. Have three _____ for each person.
- Have the supplies you use every day to keep clean, like _____.
- Keep a supply of extra _____ paper!
- You'll need utensils to eat with! Have a supply of plastic cups, silverware, and _____.
- Put some paper and _____ in your kit as well.
- Have some fun snacks, like peanut butter, granola, and _____!
- Keep yourself busy! Have lots of _____ like puzzles, a deck of cards, or checkers!
- Just in case something breaks in your home, make sure your family has _____ in the kit!
- Don't forget, you still need a _____ and _____ in your "at home" kit so that you can see and listen to what is happening in case the electricity fails!

Word List

cabinet
cookies flashlight gallons games pencils plates radio soap toilet tools